

DELPHIAN SOCIETY Kappa Chapter of Delphian Society held its final meeting of the year on Thursday, June 23 at 10 o'clock at Torrance Library...

Local Girl, New Yorker Wed June 11

Of interest to the many friends of the bride and her family here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Harriet Lorraine Pegors, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Pegors, 1723 Martin Ave., and Ira Sens of New York City. The wedding was solemnized June 11 at Woodstock, New Jersey.

The bride is a graduate of the Torrance High school and attended Los Angeles City college. She has been studying voice in New York City and has appeared professionally in the east with a career in grand opera as her goal.

Mr. Sens, a native of New York City, attended Dwight University. He is an internationally known wigmaker and makeup artist.

Mr. and Mrs. Sens will divide their time between their New York City apartment and their home on Lake Champlain at the Canadian border.

MRS. GROVER WHYTE To the Islands

MRS. G. C. WHYTE CHAPERONES CONTESTANTS TO HAWAII

Camille Poe, winner of the recent "Popularity contest" in the harbor area; Janet Condon, the "queen's" choice of companion; Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, representative of The Graphic, will leave Burbank Airport this morning at 10 o'clock for the Hawaiian Islands via Transocean Airlines for a week's vacation in the Islands, the grand prize of the contest.

Awaiting the "queen" and her companions is the round-trip flight between the mainland and Honolulu via the "Royal Hawaiian" meals aloft, a full week's stay in the guest cottages at Waikiki's colorful Niimaha Hotel with dancing and Hawaiian entertainment available every night, luau in the exotic Gardens of Queen's Surf, outrigger canoe ride or trip by glass-bottom boat.

There will also be a Mt. Tantalus tour including a visit to Iolani Place, Punchbowl National Cemetery, Diamond Head, Manoa Valley and other scenic points, luncheon at famous Waioli Tea Room, site of Robert Louis Stevenson's grass shack; and pineapple cannery tour.

Climaxing the vacation will be an "Aloha" dinner (farewell to the Islands) in the Skyroom at the Honolulu International Airport on the evening of departure.

This will be the first trip to the Islands for all three of the vacationers.

The Graphic co-sponsored the "popularity queen" contest and Mrs. Whyte, secretary-treasurer of the Graphic Corp., is accompanying the girls as a representative of the newspaper.

Beau Jardin Club Meets

Mrs. Jody Atkins acted as hostess for the regular meeting of the Beau Jardin Garden Club at her home Wednesday, June 15.

Mrs. Sue Burt and Mrs. Violet Harmon, committee members for the Loma Flower Show exhibit, reported that the Beau Jardin Garden Club won first prize in the Club Division.

Refreshments were served and games played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ann Rice, Orens Holt and Artie Zapolski. Others present were Mrs. Naomi Hayes and guest, Mrs. Phyllis Cressney.

The next regular meeting scheduled for June 29 will be held at the home of Mrs. Ellen Blair at 2221 Warmside Ave., Torrance. George Smith will be guest speaker.

Area residents interested in joining the club should contact club president, Mrs. Ann Rice of 22515 Warmside Ave.

EXCHANGING EXECUTIVE... duties in club offices for the Torrance Memorial Hospital auxiliary at the installation luncheon held at the Palos Verdes club on Tuesday were from left, front row, Mrs. Don Hyde, Mrs. Eugene Cook, new president, Mrs. Gerald Eastham, outgoing president, Mrs. Melvin Howard and Mrs. Paul Winn. Back row, from left, Mrs. Edward Grubbs, Mrs. John Melville, Mrs. Laurence Green, Mrs. Ralph McNeil, and Mrs. F. S. Hines.

Auxiliary's Installation Luncheon at Country Club

Torrance Memorial Hospital auxiliary held its installation luncheon at the Palos Verdes Country Club last Tuesday, Mrs. Eugene L. Cook, 2708 Arlington Ave., assumed the presidency for the coming year. Serving with her will be Mrs. Melvin Howard, of Rolling Hills, first vice president; Mrs. Ralph McNeil, Torrance, second vice president; Mrs. Fredrick Ewens, of Hermosa, third vice president; Mrs. Paul Winn, Palos Verdes, recording secretary; Mrs. Laurence Green, Redondo, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Don Hyde, Torrance, treasurer; and Mrs. James L. Lee, San Pedro, and Mrs. Gerald Eastham, Palos Verdes, directors.

Mrs. Eastham, outgoing president, conducted the last business meeting of the year when reports were given by Mrs. Don Hyde, Mrs. W. E. Grubbs, and Mrs. Cook.

Lioness Club Dinner Party

A treasure hunt highlighted the pot luck dinner and party held by the Lioness club at the home of Mrs. A. B. McTea, 810 Madripa Ave. last Tuesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. A. Isen, Mrs. M. Farrell and Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt.

Following the dinner, the guests had the pleasure of seeing an exhibit of 1895 newspapers, old legal documents and a coin collection. The door prize, given by the hostess, went to Mrs. H. Burke.

The next meeting will be Saturday, July 9 when a joint installation dinner dance with the Lions club will be held at the new Jamaica Inn.

Officers Are Hostesses at B&PW Dinner

New officers of the Torrance Business and Professional Woman's Club were hostesses at a meeting of the club held at a Long Beach restaurant June 20. They are Molly Marshall, president, and Betty Masie, Lois Goddington, Mary Green, Edna Reed and Muriel Whitting.

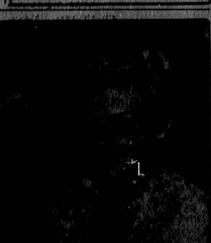

Speaker for the evening was Janice Murdoch who talked on proper grooming, color, style and modeling. Also highlighting the program was club member Lois Congwar who sang "Spring is in My Heart" and "Forgotten." She was accompanied by her vocal teacher, Nadine Nickol, 1780 Arlington Ave. Miss Congwar also led the group in community singing.

The club will hold a picnic as their July meeting. This will be held at the brick yard, 2317 W. 174th St. All husbands and friends of members will be welcome. Hostesses for this meeting will be Betty Masie, chairman, assisted by Frances Drele, Maxine Herman, Sabina Abramson, Bernice Arnold, Eva Carver, and Margo Bergman. The picnic fare will be baked ham and baked beans. Betty Masie is taking reservations.

Alumnae to Entertain

Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae Club of the South Bay will be hostess to delegates of Theta district convention at a luncheon to be held at Marineland, Fortiquest Bend, tomorrow at 12:30 p.m.

South Bay president, Mrs. Jane Hird, has been attending convention meetings, being held at the Wilton Hotel, Long Beach. The convention which includes alumnae delegates from California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii will meet through Wednesday, June 22. Mrs. James Hofstead, national Kappa Alpha Theta president, is the principal guest speaker.

Miss Markham Tours Europe

A tour of Europe are the summer plans of Miss Doris Markham, 23-year-old Whittier graduate and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Markham of 23317 Hawthorne, Torrance.

The trip is on behalf of the American Friends of known in foreign countries as the Quaker International Volunteers. This organization serves those countries which have been uprooted by war. All races and religions are represented by the individuals who are serving in this project.

Miss Markham's tour will begin June 28, when she boards a plane at International airport to fly to Pennsylvania where she will attend a government seminar. She will then journey to Canada and sail from Quebec for France, July 4.

Upon returning to the U. S. in September, she will proceed to Yale University in Conn. where graduate work in nursing will occupy her time.

Fiorellis On Florida Trip

Mrs. Alfred Fiorelli, daughter, Roberta Ann, and son, David, of Acacia Avenue, left Torrance by car on May 27 to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor L. Collob of Golfview, West Palm Beach, Florida.

Enroute they visited points of interest in California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida. Presently they are stopping at the Casa Marina, southernmost hotel in the United States, located in beautiful Key West, Florida.

Before leaving Florida in July they plan to visit many beautiful and historic spots.

HOME FROM EAST

Mrs. Charles Schultz and two daughters, LuAnne and Teri, 1408 Acacia have returned from a seven week's visit with Mrs. Schultz's mother, Mrs. Lillian Dunhouse in Sparta, Illinois. Mrs. Schultz and daughters went by plane. They drove back to California with Mrs. Dunhouse who is spending several weeks here.

MR. AND MRS. STACY STEVENS At Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Stevens Are Honored at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Stacy B. Stevens who were married in Las Vegas on April 22, were honored at a reception last Saturday evening at the YWCA. In the receiving line with the young couple were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Robison, 2264 Sonoma St. and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, 2221 Moneta Ave.

The bride, the former Janet Robison, wore her pink net wedding gown and a white corsage to receive the guests.

The hall was elaborately decorated in all white. White balloons filled with white stock, larkspur, gladioli and Shasta daisies stood at either side of the fireplace. White wedding bells were overhead and a five tiered wedding cake centered the lace covered table. A circle of white gladioli was around the cake and tall white candles in silver holders were on each side of the cake. Mrs. Joe Itson of Whittier, aunt of the bride, served the cake assisted by Mrs. Carl Dearborn and Mrs. Gene Myers of Santa Monica. From another beautifully decorated table open face sandwiches and table cookies and punch were served by Mrs. Fred Greenwalt of Long Beach, great aunt of the bride, Mrs. George Greenwalt, served coffee.

Miss Loretta Robison, sister of the bride was in charge of the guest book. Special guests here for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Meloy of Paradise, Calif., and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Hendrick.

An orchestra provided music for dancing. Edward Kellow of Bethlehem, Pa., entertained with several piano numbers. Mrs. Stevens was graduated last week from the Torrance High school. Mr. Stevens, who recently completed two years with the United States army, is employed at the General Petroleum Co. The newlyweds will establish a Torrance home.

MRS. ROBERT TABB June Bride

Barbara Thompson Weds Robert Tabb on June 4

Double ring nuptial vows were exchanged by Miss Barbara Thompson and Robert Tabb, June 4 at 8 p.m. in the Garden Wedding Chapel of Long Beach.

Bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nell Thompson, 20422 S. Normandie. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Rush Dahey, 1617 218th St. For her wedding the bride wore a white taffeta gown and a white veil with a lace band. Bridal bouquet was of white gardenias and white orchids.

Miss Luella Thompson was the maid of honor wearing blue nylon. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. Robert Patrick served as best man at the ceremony. Reception followed in the garden at the chapel.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Tabb are at home at 20427 Catalina. The bride attended Gardena High school and the bridegroom was graduated from Narbonne High school.

Chi Rho Club Welcomes New Members at Dance

A fantasy of Disneyland features decorated Nativity annex hall for the Chi Rho Club's "welcome" dance honoring eighth grade graduates who are now eligible for club membership.

Theme of the dance was "Disneyland Hall of Fame" which took place Wednesday evening with approximately 125 attending. This dance closed the present season for the group.

Committee in charge of the semi-formal dance was headed by Miss Carol Armstrong and Miss Kathy Schott. Assisting were Charles Babbitt, Michael Rogers, Tommy Fichter, Misses Nancy Farrell and Betty Jean Fenwick.

Representing the parent committee of the club were Misses LeRoy Armstrong and Howard Schott. Mrs. Whyte, secretary-treasurer of the Graphic Corp., is accompanying the girls as a representative of the newspaper.

The grand prize of the contest was an all-expense flight to Hawaii for the winner and the chaperone of her choice. In addition to Mrs. Whyte's interest in the Graphic, she is well known as former publisher of the Torrance Herald. She and her late husband, Grover C. Whyte, were publishers in Torrance for some 30 years and were active in the building of the city throughout these years.

Mrs. Whyte is on the board of directors of the Torrance Memorial Hospital and is chairman of the grounds committee and co-chairman of charity cases for the hospital. She was also co-chairman for Torrance in the last Red Cross drive and her area was first to go over the top.

Epilon Sigma Alpha, sorority held its June meeting at the home of the new president, Enid Runsted. At this meeting a wedding shower was given for Mrs. Claudia Noland, recent bride. She was presented a gift from the chapter.

Area residents interested in joining the club should contact club president, Mrs. Ann Rice of 22515 Warmside Ave.